

Common Core: Top Ten

Top Ten Things You Need to Know about Common Core:

10. Your child is unique. Our community is unique. Common Core is one size fits all.
9. Created by special interest groups with math and language arts experts refusing to sign off.
8. State boards of education approved Common Core – no legislative vote.
7. Higher testing costs and other additional expenses for many districts.
6. Data collected on your child can include medical, psychological, and religious information.
5. Reduced ability to differentiate for gifted and struggling learners.
4. Student performance on standardized tests is linked to teacher evaluations.
3. Classic literature reduced and replaced with “informational texts” in language arts.
2. Schools, homeschools, teachers and parents have less control over education.

and the number 1 thing you need to know about Common Core... YOU as a parent, teacher, concerned citizen do have the power to STOP COMMON CORE.

This is not a conservative or liberal issue. It's not Republican or Democrat. This is about our children. It is about local schools, homeschools, teachers and parents retaining control of our children's education.

What is Common Core? It is a set of K-12 standards developed primarily by a nonprofit called Achieve, Inc., along with the National Governors Association (NGA) and the Council of Chief State School Officers (CCSSO). Common Core was developed without State Legislative authority. It violates 3 federal laws. It currently encompasses math and language arts. States are currently determining whether to also adopt Next Generation Science Standards which has some serious flaws both in the hidden agenda it contains and what was omitted.

This has a serious effect on our children! Please educate yourself so your child can have the education he/she deserves. States are in various stages of implementation. See www.truthinamericaneducation.com for information about your state.

What YOU can do:

1. Educate Yourself
2. Notify your state legislators of your position
3. Spread the word to others: this flyer can be reprinted at: AsAMom.org
